ROADS OF PROGRESS

"Success"

FOREWORD AND DEDICATION

The road is open before us, leading wherever we choose, It is our opportunity to choose the right road, which may be rough, but which leads to the heights of greatness.

The staff of the Je-Ju-Se dedicates this yearbook to the people who have traveled the high school road during the past year.

Our life's road is just beginning, and we cannot linger here. We must face the future bravely. It is our hope that each of you may find the wisdom to choose the road which is right for you.

The woods are lovely and dark and deep.
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep.
And miles to go before I sleep.

Robert Frost

GUIDES ON THE ROAD TO LEARNING

Herbert A. Kurtz, Supt.

There are many roads in life that we may choose to follow. Some individuals travel just to be moving, others travel toward a definite objective. If we wonder aimlessly and insist on choosing the path of least resistance we are likely to find ourselves at the dusty dead end of failure, oblivion and poverty. However, if we select a definite objective, carefully plan our route, and travel in the vehicle of a sound education we will arrive safely, surely and swiftly at our ultimate destination.....That of successful living in our dynamic society.

THOSE WHO GUIDE

It is with pleasure, that I write these few words to our graduating Seniors.

"I have always intended to do that, but for some reason just haven't." This is probably the most flimsy of all excuses for not doing something. This fellow intends to go to college, or to be of service to his church or community, but never gets around to it. The person who lives always in the future in his thinking never does anything worthwhile. He is always going to do it tomorrow, but tomorrow never comes. You are living today, and what you do must be done today. Set your goal and sincerely strive to reach it.

Congratulations to each Senior on the completion of your school work.

BY THEIR DECISIONS

In addition to regular monthly meetings and special called meeting, the school board members also take active parts in school and community affairs. Gilbert Cox, President of the Board, is shown handing diplomas to graduating seniors. Bob Cillins is pictured as he is leaving the Junior Class Play. Mr. and Mrs. Riley enjoyed attending the Junior-Senior Banquet. Mr. Jennings and Mr. McClintock gave door prizes at the Booster's Dance. Bernard McCullough served as clerk of the school board.

Anita Wilson, Barbara Mount, Daune Rita Gulley, Lynn Harney assisted Mrs. Dawson in running the office with efficiency and smiling service. They typed announcements, delivered messages, and answered the phone.

AND THEIR SERVICES

Our janitors are Ernest Krebs and Wilburt Archer. They serve long hours keeping our school neat and clean.

Mrs. Fred Riley and Mrs. Herman Eschman work hard to prepare our nutritious and appetizing lunches. They also help mothers prepare banquets at school.

It was started by an official that Dresden was going to make the State Tournaments an annual picnic!

Bill Birkhimer wasn't kidding when he said they had a meeting of the "heads"; they really did.

The boys had FUN drowning each other as they slept, following the final game. We heard Jeff really got soaked.

The boys were treated to some strange concoctions for breakfast, including meatloaf, green beans, mashed potatoes and gravy. (This was on the morning of the finals.)

As Galen Mahon said, "We are the greatest." The people didn't believe it, but here we are again, Ohio Class A State Champs for the second year in a row. Almost an impossibility, so we were told, but we proved it different. Our Jay Hawks brought home another BIG trophy for our trophy case. We are truly proud of all our Jay Hawks.

We were not given much chance in the finals

Martha Sauerbrey was presented the Arion Award.

The Jefferson High Girl's Chorus sang several numbers at the Christmas and Spring Concerts and carried out the tradition of presenting music at Baccalaureate. One of the Chorus's favorite numbers this year was, "Hey, Look Me Over!" Everyone enjoyed the solos sung by Janet Chaney and Shelia Norris.

Both Band and Chorus participated in the Spring Concert. The theme for the concert, banquet, and dance was "Springtime on Broadway."

Jefferson Band

After performing at football stadiums for several weeks last fall, the Jefferson High School Band remained indoors to prepare for the Christmas program, which was presented at a special school assembly. Following the holidays, Mr. Poole served as substitute director for several weeks in the absence of Mr. Sanders who was injured in an automobile accident. Later, the trip to the district contest was impossible due to schedule conflicts at school. However, the year was climaxed with a fine spring concert and banquet, plus something new - a princess who reigned at the dance. The achievement and Arion awards presented at the annual banquet as well as the letters awarded to the Juniors helped to give the band members a feeling of real achievement for the year 1963-64.

The Pep Band rendered a real service to the school.

FFA STUDENTS OF TODAY ARE TOMORROW'S FARMERS.

The Jefferson Chapter of Future Homemakers of America has worked on many activities this year. It was our privilege to entertain the Frazeysburg and Union Chapters at our Bi-county Rally in October. Karen King, who attended the National Meeting at Kansas City, gave a report on the meeting.

The FFA and FHA held their fourth annual "Family Night" in December. The program theme was "Know and Appreciate Ohio." Karen King reported on the National Meeting.

The Jefferson Chapter also received the "Award of Merit" for the eleventh year as an outstanding chapter, at the State Meeting in March.

Other activities such as sending Karen King to FHA camp in July and having the ball game concessions and Sock Hop made a busy year.

The above group conducted the ceremony which made Mrs. Floyd Bice and Mrs. Lawrence King honorary FHA members.

Mrs. Little, adviser, pins an honorary membership pin on Mrs. Bice. Mrs. King was unable to attend the meeting.

FHA STUDENTS OF TODAY ARE TOMORROWS HOMEMAKERS.

The FFA is a national organization of boys interested in the study of agriculture. During the past year, our chapter has accomplished many things. Several of our boys showed animals at the Muskingum County Fair and the State Fair, doing well in both shows.

After the school year had begun, the FFA and FHA held their annual "Family Night."

The purpose of the "Family Night" is to better acquaint the parents with the vocational courses of the school. Also, we participated in celebrating National FFA week, February 15 to the 22, with Ralph Carnes and Charles Thomas appearing on WHIZ televisions.

The speaker for "Family Night" was Jac Dill, a State FFA officer. Here he is shown with Mr. McMurray and Ray Mohler, the 1963-64 president.

Families of FFA and FHA members attended the annual "Family Night." Here, they prepare to enjoy a delicious meal.

JEFFERSON GIRLS

The Seniors who received trophies for the most points were Emma Headley, Tacy Cooper, and Kathleen Zimmer. They also received pins inscribed with "JGAA." The other girls received pins with either "JGAA" or "GAA" on them. Some were awarded charms.

Another highlight of the year was the first all-girl intramural track meet. This included the high jump, broad jump, softball and baseball throws, 50-60-75-yard dashes, low hurdles, one-fifth mile run, and a relay.

Those Juniors who received their letters were Barbara Mount, Mary Jo Davis, Bea Schumacher, Linda James, Marcia Wood, Linda Magness, Pattii Pritchard, Elaine Weiser, Diane Shurtz.

The two Sophomores who received their "J's" also earned 150 or more points. They were Bobbi Jo Mathew and Lillette Corder.

Hannah Helbling received her certificate showing that she had earned the most points in the Freshman class.

The JGAA members and their guests enjoyed a long-awaited Awards Dance after the girls had worked so hard all year.

The limit to these entries was three events. Ribbons were awarded to the first three place winners, and the Juniors won the high team score with a total of 53 points. Kathleen Zimmer was awarded a pink ribbon for the high scorer.

The officers for next year who were elected at a mid-year meeting are as follows: President, Bea Schumacher; Vice-President, Becky Starnner; Sec.-Treas., Bobbi Jo Mathew; Points Chairman, Lillette Corder; News Reporter, Barbara Mount; and Student Council, Mary Jo Davis.

On March 21, the Latin Club attended the Junior Classical League State Convention at Mershon Auditorium in Columbus. They viewed the Latin skits and the election of officers for the coming year and had lunch at the Ohio Union.

The nine new members were initiated into the Latin Club by a committee who acted as gods and goddesses. They were given gifts which were symbols of the Roman Gods and Goddesses, such as apples for Pomona and winged sandals for Mercury.

Junior Class Play

The Junior Class presented their annual class play Friday, April 3. The play, "Betty Jane From Punkin Lane", was a three act comedy written by James F. Stone and presented under the direction of Mrs. Martin. Betty Jane (Linda Magness), mainstay of the Bean family has been visiting the city, in an effort to gain polish, which she does. Auntie Bean (Marcia Wood) has had a time keeping the Bean farm out of debt, all this unknown to Betty. In an effort to clear the debt, Auntie rents rooms to two city strangers, Gordon Gilbert (Bill Taylor) and his sister, Gertie (Barbara Mount). Squire Simmons (Jae Stafford), a shrewd businessman, presents a solution to Auntie's financial problem. Johnny (Russ Walton), Hank Hardwater (Dave Schweitzer), Squire's daughter (Kay Pletcher), Ketchy Finch (Kathy Swingle), Harvey Higgins (Howard Siegrist), and the Gilbert's mother (Arlene Zimmer), add to the mystery and fun of upsetting the Squire's plan. The village gossip, Prudence Putter (Diane Shurtz), lets nothing slip past her in this comedy, which proved to be very successful.

A gift for Mrs. Martin.

Get the smelling salts!

After the explosion!

SENIORS PRESENT "HERE COMES CHARLIE"

"Here Comes Charlie" is a farce-comedy written by Jay Tobias. The action takes place at the home of Larry Elliott (Jim Romine) in a suburb of St. Louis, Missouri, where many strange things happen. Larry receives a letter from a dying friend asking him to take care of his little Charlie (Helen Helbling). No one is in favor of the idea, including Larry's Aunt Fanny (Tacy Cooper), who didn't want a hillbilly coming to live with her. Vivian Smythe-Kersey, Larry's fiancée, plainly shows her dislike for Charlie.

In the midst of these ill feelings toward Larry's new ward, Charlie is accused of stealing Mrs. Smythe-Kersey's (Sally Uffner's) pearls. And Vivian insists that she tried to stab her! But old Aleck Twiggs (Joe Davis) ends everything by announcing the engagement of his little Charlie to "that good fer nothin' Larry Elliott."

The Senior Class is indebted to Mrs. Porter, who directed the play. Both she and the cast were well rewarded when the auditorium was filled with laughter and applause from one of the largest audiences ever to attend a play at Jefferson High School.

Members of the cast are shown in the foreground of the above picture. Kneeling: Jim Romine and Joe Davis. Seated at center: Helen Helbling. Second Row: John Starnner, Tom Barton, Martha Sauerbrey, Tacy Cooper, Sally Uffner, Kathleen Zimmer, and

"This here sure 'air a swell shack you got here, Mr. Elliott."

"Do you want to hear about my pet gold fish, Shadrach Meshach Abednego."

"Why don't you get the hose and be done with it?"

The class presents a gift to the director, Mrs. Porter.

DRESDEN HOMECOMING

Mary Jo Davis Dorothy Headley Melody Tignor

Every year, the Jefferson High student body elects a queen and two attendants, from the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes, respectively.

This year, Dorothy Headley was chosen to reign as queen. Her attendants were Melody Tignor escorted by Gary Graves, and Mary Jo Davis escorted by Philip Longstreth.

The dance in the gym which followed the game was also sponsored by the Student Council. Queen Earlene and Escort Joe Davis danced the first dance to the song "Blue Velvet". They and the other attendants and escorts led the sno-ball dance.

Tacy Cooper as Master of Ceremonies, introduces Queen and Court.

J-CLUB ACTIVITIES

This year the J-Club furnished entertainment for the community by arranging for a Donkey Basketball Game and an exhibition basketball game between the Harlem Ambassadors and the faculty. Other projects included selling "State-Champ Jackets" and sponsoring a sock hop.

Any varsity athlete who earns a "J" is eligible to become a member of the J-Club and to buy a J-Club jacket. When these members graduate, they are reimbursed for their jackets with the money earned from projects such as those mentioned above. J-Club officers were: Jeff Longaberger, president; John Starner, vice-president; and Dean Sarbaugh, secretary-treasurer.

The Jay Hawks show their stuff.

TOURNAMENT HIGHLIGHTS

This year the Jay Hawks won their second straight State Championship in basketball; a feat equalled only by Bellpoint and the famous Waterloo Wonders. In winning these championships, the Jay Hawks proved that determination and the will to win are more important than size.

Although they were underrated throughout the year, they proved to be the best team in the State.

The accompanying pictures show some of the high spots of tournament play and the final score, 71-61, of the State Championship Game played against Celina Immaculate Conception.

Good Luck!

SPRINGTIME ON BROADWAY

The Band Banquet was held in the high school cafeteria, May 9, 1964. The colorful display of paper instruments on the walls set the mood for such an occasion. As the speaker, Judge Holland Gary gave a summary of his experiences with music. The program climaxed with the song "More", sung by Shelia Norris.

Beautiful decorations contributed to an enjoyable dance. Never before had the gym looked so outstanding until it resembled Broadway. The lamp posts, which lighted the thoroughfare, seemed almost real, and the stars hanging overhead sparkled in the light. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the first Band Princess, Martha Sauerbrey.

Thirteen Juniors received Letters

ORIENTAL GARDENS

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held May 15, 1964, in the High School Cafeteria. An excellent dinner was served and the program was highlighted by a vocal solo by Shelia Norris and a fine talk by Mr. R. G. MacMurray.

The prom theme, "Oriental Gardens," was carried out beautifully in the decoration of the gym and cafeteria. Over the dance floor was a pastel canopy, and the mood was set by a small garden and bench in the center of the floor.

The decorations, food, and music provided by the Juniors contributed to an evening long to be remembered by both classes.

"Let's sit down, my feet hurt!"

"Get in step, Neal!"

CLASS NIGHT

Class Night was carried out with an Arabian theme. The narration by Dale Riley told the story of the original Arabian Nights. Karen King and Helen Helbling read the class history. An original class poem was written and given by Kathleen Zimmer. Unlike Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves, each class member left something to the undergraduates. From Aladdin's Magic Lamp gifts were given to the graduates. The Senior Girls sang "May You Always" and "Graduation Day." The future was seen as the class prophecy was read by Martha Sauerbrey and Sally Uffner. The Arabian Class Night of '64 was climaxed by the announcement of the Outstanding Seniors and the presentation of the key to opportunity to Paul Lacey.

GRADUATION

BACCALAUREATE

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday afternoon, May 31, at 2:00 P.M. in the High School Auditorium. Fifty-four members of the Class of 1964 marched solemnly in to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance." Local clergymen taking part in the service were Rev. Kelly Oswald, Father Francis Miller, Rev. George Vorhies, Rev. Charles Moore, and Rev. Ralph Burns, who gave the sermon. The Girl's Chorus sang "Bless This House" and "You'll Never Walk Alone."

.....AND THEN COMMENCEMENT

Commencement exercises were held at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium with C. L. Dumaree, Assistant Superintendent of Columbus Public Schools, delivering the class address. The invocation was given by Reverend Clarence Driftmyer. Norbert Kurtz presented the 1964 graduating class and Gilbert Cox, President of the School Board, presented the diplomas.
